MEDICAL DISCLAIMER

Entry into the PGA International Golf Institute is dependent upon the following:

- Where a medical condition exists, to provide the PGA IGI with evidence of a medical examination and clearance by a qualified medical practitioner (at the expense of the applicant) prior to enrolment.
- Notify the PGA IGI prior to entry of any existing injuries/disabilities which may hinder course of study.
- Report all incidents or injuries to the PGA IGI which may occur either on or off duty of PGA IGI care.
- Allow the PGA IGI to act and assist to arrange any necessary first aid or medical treatment should it be in the best interest of the student (at the expense of the student).

HEALTH INSURANCE (OSHC) (International Students only)

Do you require PGA IGI to arrange your Overseas Student Health Cover?

- Yes - $500 (Single cover – 12 months)       No

Student health insurance is not included in your tuition fees, you will be required to provide your own health insurance cover. The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) require all holders of a student visa to maintain overseas student health cover (OSHC) during their entire stay in Australia. Student visa condition 8501 - Maintain OSHC: is a mandatory condition of a student visa. Immigration policy states that international students who do not maintain their OSHC may have their student visa cancelled.

Privacy Principles

Information collected about you on this form and during your enrolment will be provided, in certain circumstances, to the Australian Government and designated authorities including USI Registry and, if relevant, the Tuition Protection Service and the ESOS Assurance Fund Manager. In other instances, information collected on this form or during your enrolment can be disclosed without your consent where the PGA IGI is authorised or required by law to do so. You can access information collected from you on this form and during your enrolment by contacting Student Services and Administration Coordinator at the PGA International Golf Institute (PGA IGI). Failure to provide all information required by this form could result in delaying your application or cancellation of your Letter of Offer.

International Applicants

Information is collected on this form and during your enrolment in order to meet our obligations under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000, and the National Code 2007, and to ensure student compliance with the conditions of their visa and their obligations under Australian immigration laws generally. The authority to collect this information is contained in the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000, the Education Services for Overseas Students Regulations 2001 and the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2007. Failure to provide all information required by this form could result in delaying your application or cancellation of your Letter of Offer/eCOE.
